

K-Love is on whenever I listen the the radio. Its the only station I know of that offers contemporary music without offensive ads or content. I am aware of many other listeners in my community who listen to it for the very same reasons. If the station were to be lost due to the LPFM expansion the impact would be devastating. There isn't another station I'm willing to listen to. Please don't take away our station.